Long-term prospects remain intactFY14 core net profit down 6.5% yoy, slightly below expectations

Hai-O's FY14 revenue declined 5% yoy to RM253.4m due to lower revenue contribution from its multi-level-marketing (MLM) division, which dropped 10% yoy to RM150m. Likewise, EBIT margins slipped to 21% from 22.2% a year ago, attributed to higher sales of lower margin products as the company promoted more of its smaller-ticket items as opposed to its "big ticket" items. Its "big ticket" items currently make up 52% of the revenue for FY14 vs. 72% in FY13. As a result, FY14 core earnings slipped 6.5% to RM40.5m despite a lower effective tax rate. On a whole, Hai-O's FY14 core net profit was slightly below ours but within consensus expectations, accounting for 92% and 97% of the full-year estimates respectively. The company also announced a final DPS of 10 sen, bringing its total FY14 DPS to 14 sen, for a payout ratio of 68% (vs. 60% for FY13). This translates into a yield of 5.5%.

4Q14 core profit lifted by lower effective tax rate

On a sequential basis, Hai-O's 4Q FY14 revenue of RM61.5m (-14.2% qoq) was dragged down by lower sales contribution from both its wholesale (-26% qoq) and retail (-44% qoq) division as consumers have cut down orders for the quarter, post CNY festivities. Despite the weaker revenue, EBIT margins improved by 0.5ppts to 19.7% likely due to better cost management efforts. A lower effective tax rate of 13.7% (vs 3QFY14: 24.9%) helped to boost its core earnings by 3.8% qoq to RM10.7m. On a yoy comparison, both its 4Q FY14 revenue and core earnings dropped 14.7% and 7.5% thanks to lower sales from its MLM division (-17% yoy). A key reason for the weaker MLM performance was attributed to a shift in marketing strategy. While waiting for the launch of its latest range of its foundation garments, which comparatively rakes in higher margins, the company took the opportunity to engage in promoting "small ticket" items. This garnered good response from both its existing and new members.

Maintain ADD, with slightly tweaked TP to RM3.01

Overall, we make no major changes to our core assumptions, but tweak our FY15 estimates slightly higher by 1.6% after updating our model for the FY14 financial statements. Also, we introduce our FY17 EPS forecast of 29.9 sen (+9.9% yoy). Pending a meeting with management next week, we reiterate our ADD rating on Hai-O with a slightly higher TP of RM3.01 (from RM2.97) based on an unchanged target multiple of 11.5x (in-line with its historical 3-year mean trading band) on CY15 EPS. We continue to like Hai-O given its: i) solid long-term fundamentals, ii) attractive dividend yields of 6-7% over the next three years and iii) appealing valuations at 10.5x CY15 PER. Key risks would include: i) a sharp slowdown in consumer spending, which would dampen distributors' sales and ii) stiffer-than-expected competition from other MLM companies.
